

Table of Contents

About the Authors.....	1-5
------------------------	-----

Chapter I - THE CONTRACT FOR CONSTRUCTION: STANDARD FORMS AND COMMON RISK TRANSFERRING PROVISIONS

By: Joseph W. DeLave, Dickinson Wright PLLC, Bloomfield Hills

The Contract for Construction	I-1
A. Construction Industry Families of Documents.....	I-2
1. AGC Contractor Construction Documents.....	I-2
2. The AIA Contractor Construction Documents.....	I-3
3. The AGC/AIA Subcontractor Documents.....	I-3
4. Some Final Warnings About Standard Forms.....	I-4
B. Common Risk Shifting Provisions in Construction Contracts	I-4
1. Pay-When-Paid/Pay-if-Paid	I-5
2. Flow-Through Clauses	I-6
3. Design Responsibilities	I-7
4. No Damage for Delay.....	I-8
5. Indemnification.....	I-9
6. Mutual Waiver of Consequential Damages.....	I-10
7. Differing Site Conditions	I-10
8. Environmental Risk Allocation.....	I-11
9. Liquidated Damages.....	I-12
10. Retention	I-
13
Conclusion & Endnotes	I-13-20

Chapter II - BIDS, BIDDERS AND BID PROTESTS

By: Thomas M. Keranen, P.E., J.D. and Peter J. Cavanaugh, J.D., Thomas M. Keranen & Associates, P.C., Bloomfield Hills

Introduction.....	II-1
Public Projects	II-2
Michigan Bidding Statutes.....	II-3
Bidding Procedure	II-4
Acceptance of the Bids
A. Responsiveness	II-4
B. Responsibility	II-5
C. Late Bids	II-6
D. Bid Errors and Mistakes.....	II-6-8
Protesting the Award of Public Contracts: "The Disappointed Bidder Case"
A. Federal Law.....	II-8
B. Michigan Law	II-8
C. Summary	II-9
Endnotes.....	II-9

Chapter III - DEFECTIVE PLANS/SPECIFICATIONS

By: Dennis B. Schultz and Richard G. Strenger, Butzel Long, Bloomfield Hills

Introduction.....	III-1
Protection of the Contractor under the Spearin Doctrine.....	III-1

The Spearin Doctrine is Recognized and Applied Under Michigan Law.....	III-2
Recent Case Law Limits Protection for Contractors Against Damages Resulting From Defective Specifications.....	III-3
The Spearin Doctrine Applies to Defects in “Design Specifications” But Not “Performance Specifications”	III-4
Project Owners’ Attempts to Avoid the Spearin Doctrine through Contract Provisions.....	III-4-5
Project Owner’s Use of Affirmative Defense in Litigation to Shift Risk to Contractors	III-6
Negligence/Malpractice Action Against the Design Professional	III-6
Conclusion & Endnotes	III-7-8

Chapter IV - CONTRACT CHANGES/DIFFERING SITE CONDITIONS

By: Peter J. Cavanaugh, J.D., Thomas M. Keranen & Associates, P.C., Bloomfield Hills

I. Contract Changes
A. Directed Changes.....	IV-1
B. Constructive Changes	IV-1
C. Cardinal Changes.....	IV-2
D. Written Notice	IV-3
II. Differing Site Conditions
A. Type I Differing Site Conditions	IV-4
B. Type II Differing Site Condition	IV-4
C. Damages.....	IV-5
D. Michigan’s Differing Site Conditions Law	IV-5-7
Summary	IV-7
Appendix A/1-5 - Article 7, AIA A201-1997 (General Conditions and FAR 52-243-4 (Changes).....	IV-8-13
Appendix B/1 – FAR 52-236-2 (Differing Site Conditions).....	IV-14
Appendix C/1-2 – MCL 125.1591, et seq. (Michigan Differing Site Conditions Clause).....	IV-15-16

Chapter V - DELAY IN CONTRACT PERFORMANCE

By: John Sier, Kitch, Drutchas, Wagner, DeNardis & Valitutti, P.C., Detroit

Introduction.....	V-1
A. General Principles	V-1
B. Contractor Claims
1. Information to Bidders.....	V-2
2. Active Interference and Disruption.....	V-3
C. Owner Claims
1. Consequential Damages.....	V-4
2. Liquidated Damages.....	V-4
3. Owner Delay	V-4
4. Waiver.....	V-5
5. Limitations of Actions.....	V-5
D. Concurrent Delays	V-5
E. Notice and Waiver	V-5
F. No Damage for Delay.....	V-6
G. Particular Claims and Damages	V-6
1. Labor Productivity	V-6
2. Home Officer Overhead.....	V-6
3. Extended Field Office Overhead.....	V-7
Conclusion	V-7

Chapter VI - REMEDIES FOR PAYMENT DISPUTES

By: Kevin S. Hendrick, Clark Hill P.L.C., Detroit

Introduction.....	VI-1
A. Right to Stop Work for Non-Payment.....	VI-1
1. Work Stoppage.....	VI-1
2. Contract Termination	VI-2
3. Conditions Precedent Generally.....	VI-2
4. Payment Disputes in the Absence of Specific Contractual Language	VI-3
B. Construction Liens
1. Residential v Non-Residential Structures	VI-3
2. Public v Private Projects	VI-4
3. Parties Entitled to File a Lien.....	VI-4
C. Notice of Commencement
1. General Requirements.....	VI-4
2. An Owner's Responsibility with Respect to a Notice of Commencement	VI-4
3. Contractors' and Subcontractors' Responsibility with Respect to a Notice of Commencement	VI-5
D. Notice of Furnishing
1. Requirements for Subcontractors/Suppliers.....	VI-5
2. Requirements for Laborers.....	VI-5
3. Proof of Service of Notice of Furnishing.....	VI-6
E. Claim of Lien
1. Time Limitation for Recording a Claim of Lien	VI-6
2. Where to Record a Lien	VI-6
3. Information Required in a Claim of Lien.....	VI-6
4. Serving the Claim of Lien on Other Parties	VI-7
F. Sworn Statements	VI-7
G. Waivers of Lien
1. Lien Foreclosure	VI-8
2. Bonding Off the Lien	VI-8
H. Construction Bonds for Public Projects.....	VI-8
I. Joint Check Agreements.....	VI-10
J. Builders Trust Fund.....	VI-10
Conclusion	VI-11
Endnotes	VI-11-

12

APPENDICES:

Appendix 1 - Notice of Commencement

Appendix 2 - Notice of Furnishing

Appendix 3 - Proof of Service of Notice of Furnishing for Subcontractor or Supplier

Appendix 4 - Claim of Lien for Contractor, Subcontractor, or Supplier

Appendix 5 - Claim of Lien for Laborer Only

Appendix 6 - Proof of Service of Claim of Lien

Appendix 7 - Sworn Statement

Appendix 8 - Partial Unconditional Waiver

Appendix 9 - Partial Conditional Waiver

Appendix 10 - Full Unconditional Waiver

Appendix 11 - Full Conditional Waiver

Appendix 12 - Joint Check Agreements

Chapter VII - DISPUTE RESOLUTION MECHANISMS

By: David M. Lick, Loomis Ewert Ederer Parsley Davis & Gotting, P.C., Lansing

Introduction.....	VII-1
I. Facilitative Mediation
Definition.....	VII-1
Definitive Attributes	VII-1
How to Utilize.....	VII-2-4
Precautionary Provisions	VII-4
II. ARBITRATION
Definition.....	VII-5
Definitive Attributes	VII-5
How to Utilize.....	VII-6-8
Precautionary Provisions	VII-8
III. CASE EVALUATION
Definition.....	VII-8
Definitive Attributes	VII-9
How to Utilize.....	VII-9
Precautionary Provisions	VII-9
IV. DISPUTE REVIEW BOARDS
Definition.....	VII-10
Definitive Attributes	VII-10
How to Utilize.....	VII-11-13
Precautionary Provisions	VII-13
V. TRADITIONAL COURT PROCESS
Definition.....	VII-13
Definitive Attributes	VII-13
How to Utilize.....	VII-14
Precautionary Provisions	VII-14
Conclusion	VII-15
Appendices.....	VII-15-17
Dispute Resolution Comparison Chart	VII-18-19

Chapter VIII – OVERVIEW OF STATE AND FEDERAL PREVAILING WAGE LAW

By: Frank T. Mamat, Esq., Keith J. Brodie, Esq., and Lisa A. Goodman, Esq., Dickinson Wright PLLC, Detroit

What is the Davis Bacon Act?	VIII-1
What is the “Prevailing Wage”?	VIII-2-3
What Contracts are Covered by the Acts?	VIII-4-7
What Employees are Covered by the Acts?.....	VIII-7-10
What are Contractors and/or Subcontractors Obligations Under the Act?	VIII-10-12
Current Developments in Prevailing Wage Law	VIII-12-16
How to Ensure Your Subcontractors are in Compliance	VIII-16

Chapter IX - MICHIGAN OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT (MIOSHA)

By: Aileen Leipprandt, Smith Haughey Rice & Roegge, Grand Rapids

Introduction.....	IX-1
Significant Provisions of the Act.....	IX-1
Responsibilities of the Employer	IX-2
Responsibilities of the Employee.....	IX-3

Training.....	IX-3
Employer’s Records.....	IX-3
Administration and Enforcement of the Act.....	IX-3-4
Inspections and Investigations.....	IX-5
Handling a MIOSHA Inspection.....	IX-5-6
Handling the Inspection – Preliminary Considerations.....	IX-7
The Inspection.....	IX-8-10
Imminent Danger.....	IX-10
Citations Alleging Violations.....	IX-10-12
Penalties.....	IX-12-13
Options in Responding to Citation.....	IX-13
Abating the Violation.....	IX-14
Appeal of Department’s Decisions.....	IX-14-17
Legal Significance of Citation.....	IX-17
Conclusion & Endnotes.....	IX-17-19

APPENDICES:

Appendix A – MIOSHA Form 300, Log of Work-Related Injuries & Illnesses; 300A, Summary of Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses; 301, Injury & Illness Incident Report

Appendix B – Construction Safety Standards General Rules

Appendix C – Index of Occupational Safety & Health Standards & Order Form, October, 2003

Appendix D – Variance Standard

Chapter X - HIRING AND TERMINATING EMPLOYEES IN MICHIGAN

By: Kevin S. Hendrick, Clark Hill P.L.C., Detroit

Introduction.....	X-1
Applications and Interviews in General.....	X-1
Reference Checks.....	X-2
Preserving the At-Will Relationship.....	X-2
Inquiries About Workers' Compensation Claims.....	X-3
The Civil Rights Act of 1991.....	X-4
Hiring Considerations under the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA").....	X-4-6
Drug Testing.....	X-6-7
Sexual Harassment.....	X-7-8
Other Forms of Harassment.....	X-8
Effective Termination Procedures.....	X-8
Shortening the Periods of Limitation for Employment Related Disputes.....	X-9
Agreements to Arbitrate.....	X-9
Conclusion & Endnotes.....	X-10-11

Chapter XI - ENVIRONMENTAL LAW: A BRIEF OVERVIEW FOR THE CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTOR

By: Jeffrey S. Theuer, Loomis, Ewert, Parsley, Davis & Gotting, P.C., Lansing

I	Introduction.....	XI-1
II	Notification of Spill/Release and the Emergency Planning and Community Right to Know Act.....	XI-1-3
III	Soil Erosion and Sedimentation.....	XI-4-5

IV	Storm Water Permits	XI-5-7
V	Environmental Site Assessments & Baseline Environmental Assessments/Brownfield Development	XI-7-8
VI	Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (“RCRA”)	XI-9
VII	Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (“CERCLA”)	XI-9-10
VIII	Asbestos, Lead, Radon and PCB	XI-11
IX	Wetlands and the Clean Water Act.....	XI-12-13
X	Mold	XI-13
XI	Conclusion.....	XI-14

Chapter XII – BANKRUPTCIES IN A CONSTRUCTION SETTING

By: Stephen A. Hilger, Esq., Rhoades McKee, Grand Rapids

Automatic Stays in Bankruptcy	XII-1
Executory Contracts.....	XII-1
“Pay When Paid” Clauses	XII-2
Preferential Payments and Setting Them Aside.....	XII-2
Warranties in Bankruptcy	XII-2
Automatic Default Clauses	XII-3
Bonds, Liens and Builder’s Trust Claims	XII-3
Conclusion	XII-3

Chapter XIII – DEALING WITH THE MEDIA AND PRESS IN CORPORATE CRISIS SITUATIONS

By: Frank T. Mamat, Esquire, Dickinson Wright PLLC, Detroit

Overview.....	XIII-1
What You Must Know about the Media or the Press	XIII-1
What You Must Never Do	XIII-2
What You Must Try to Do When Dealing with the Media.....	XIII-2
Do’s and Don’ts	XIII-3-4

Chapter XIV – BONDING AND INSURANCE

By: Chris Parfitt, Deneweth, Dugan & Parfitt, P.C., Troy

Introduction.....	XIV-1
Michigan Public Works Bond Statutes	XIV-1
Bonds on Private Projects	XIV-2
Insurance Coverage in Construction–Commercial General Liability Policy.....	XIV-3
Insurer’s Duty to Defend	XIV-3
Notice to Insurance Company.....	XVI-4
Coverage for Defective Work of Subcontractors.....	XIV-5
Design/Build Errors and Omissions Coverage	XIV-5
Builders Risk Insurance	XIV-5
Insurance Coverage for Mold Claims	XIV-6

Chapter XV – SUBCONTRACTORS, RIGHTS & REMEDIES

By: Kevin Hendrick, Clark Hill. P.L.C., Detroit

I.	Contract Rights and Terms.....	XV-1
	A. General.....	XV-1
	B. Indemnification.....	XV-1
	C. Termination Provisions.....	XV-1

D. Privity of Contract	XV-2
E. Differing Site Conditions Clauses	XV-2
F. Inspection.....	XV-2
G. Scope of Work Provisions	XV-2
H. Change Order and Extra Work Provisions	XV-3
I. Notice Provisions.....	XV-3
J. Insurance/Additional Insureds	XV-3
K. Retainage Provisions	XV-3
L. Attorney Fee Provisions	XV-3
M. Forum Selection and Choice of Law Clauses.....	XV-3
N. Arbitration	XV-4
O. Bonds/Liens.....	XV-4
P. Warranties.....	XV-5
II. Bankruptcy	XV-5
III. Builder’s Trust Fund	XV-5
IV. Reliance on Proposal.....	XV-5
V. Pass-Through Claims	XV-6
Endnotes	XV-6

Chapter XVI – MICHIGAN CONSTRUCTION DEFECT AND MOLD LITIGATION

By: Stephen A. Hilger, Esq., Rhoades McKee, Grand Rapids

Introduction.....	XVI-1
Who are the Target Defendants?.....	XVI-1
Theories of Liability	XVI-2
Sample Contract Language	XVI-2-5
Third Party Beneficiary.....	XVI-5
Tort Liability.....	XVI-5-6
Major Causes of Action	XVI-6-7
Potential Damages	XVI-7-8
Handling the Construction Defect and Mold Case	XVI-8-10
Conclusion	XVI-10

Chapter XVII – INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND CONSTRUCTION LAW

By: Ed Hood, Clark Hill, P.L.C., Detroit

Overview.....	XVII-1
Technology and Construction Practice	XVII-1-2
Legal and Practical Implications of Advancement in Information Technology	XVII-3-8
Conclusion	XVII-8-9