

ACTIVE SHOOTER: WORKPLACE PREVENTION & PREPAREDNESS

April 17 2019 * 8:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
AGC Michigan, 2323 N. Larch, Lansing, MI

THE SESSION:

Given today's ever-changing threat environment, preparing for and training employees to cope with workplace violence should be a key piece of an organization's incident response planning. This presentation will take an in-depth look at current trends, indicators, preventative and active measures to enhance awareness of, and response to, an active shooter event and enable planning teams to make effective decisions regarding their emergency response Utilizing a multi-media presentation topics will include:

- ◆ The nature of workplace violence and future violence indicators.
- ◆ Policy considerations and risk mitigation.
- ◆ Preparing the workforce for crisis.
- ◆ Effective leadership during critical incidents.
- ◆ Managing the crisis and its aftermath.
- ◆ How to work First Responders into your plan.

THE PRESENTERS:

Brian Bastianelli, President and founding member, Fortis Group, LLC

Brian is a full-time law enforcement command officer with 24 years of experience employed by a large metropolitan police department adjacent to Detroit, Michigan. Combining extensive real-world experience with 20 years of instruction, he has delivered thousands of hours of crisis preparedness and use-of-force training to private citizens, security providers, corporate and public safety organizations. Brian possesses a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice Administration from Concordia University, is a graduate of the FBI Leadership Development Course, Northwestern University School of Police Staff & Command and holds numerous FEMA Emergency Management certifications. Leading Fortis Group, Brian has assembled an incredibly talented and distinguished group of trainers that are recognized experts in their respective fields. Through this team, Fortis Group furthers Brian's life-long dedication toward making the world a safer place.

Mark Mostek, Senior Instructor, Fortis Group, LLC

Mark is a highly decorated 28-year police veteran employed by a large metropolitan police department adjacent to Detroit, Michigan. Mark has vast experience in tactical patrol operations, in-service training coordination and investigating complex criminal complaints, including covert surveillance and undercover operations. Mark is an expert in use-of-force instruction, field training and active assailant response. Mark has trained over 1,000 sworn officers and civilians on how to better prepare for active assailant incidents throughout the Southeast Michigan area. He has served as an advisor to the Farmington Public Schools District, Farmington area houses-of-worship and local day care centers helping them to implement active assailant emergency operations plans. Mark is responsible for instructing police departments, security agencies and corporate clients.

WHO WILL BENEFIT:

This session is not industry specific. Individuals from a variety of organizations will benefit.

The target audience is any manager involved in minimizing the risk of an organization. That group includes the senior executives, safety directors, and risk managers for those companies.

Cost:

$79/AGC Member
$99/CIAP Member
$129/Non-Member

Registration Deadline:

April 10, 2019

More information:

Viki Gotts
(248) 721-0075

 REGISTER NOW

Sponsored by:

CLARK HILL
Legal and Professional Services

 BeneSys™

TIC International Corporation
Benefit Administrators and Consultants