Detroit Contractor To Chair Michigan's Leading Commercial Construction Association

Lansing, Mich.—Todd Ketola, Vice President of Barton Malow Company in Southfield has been elected 2016 chairman of the Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Michigan, the state's leading association for commercial construction firms. Mr. Ketola was installed during the association's annual meeting today in Lansing.

"I am humbled by the opportunity to serve this great association and help advance Michigan's commercial construction industry," said Todd Ketola. "While we definitely have some issues to tackle, I think we have many more opportunities than we do issues which will be my focus for the association."

Mr. Ketola, a native of Michigan's Upper Peninsula and graduate of Northern Michigan University, has more than 24 years of experience in the construction industry. He is active in Michigan's construction industry and his community. His construction experience includes notable projects in professional and collegiate sports, entertainment, education, federal and healthcare markets throughout the U.S.

Joining Mr. Ketola as 2016 officers of the AGC of Michigan are vice chairman Darryl Massa (executive vice president of Granger Construction in Lansing) and treasurer Bill Litz (vice president of Aristeo in Detroit).
