

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 1, 2019

Contact: Cathy Mayhew, 517.908.8052

cgalbraith@agcmichigan.org

Michigan's Construction of Choice Elects First Woman Leader

Plymouth, Mich.—The Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Michigan elected Eileen McCarthy, vice president of Farmington-based McCarthy & Smith Construction as chairman of the association's board of directors. AGC is the Michigan's leading full-service association for commercial construction firms.

"I am honored and humbled to be the first woman elected as chairman of this proud and historic organization," said Eileen McCarthy. "Like my father and brother before me, I will lead this great association with integrity and a spirit of rising the tide for all of Michigan's commercial construction industry."

As vice president of McCarthy & Smith, Ms. McCarthy manages the construction and renovation of diverse projects throughout Michigan. Her extensive career includes experience in both the Chicago and Detroit markets, having been involved with more than $1 billion of construction throughout her career. Eileen has been on the AGC of Michigan since 2016 and she is also active in Sweet Dreamzz Detroit.

Serving alongside Ms. McCarthy as 2019 officers of the AGC of Michigan are vice chairman Trace Hendrick of R.C. Hendrick and Son in Saginaw, and treasurer Andy Wasiniak of Walbridge in Detroit.

The AGC of Michigan is a full service construction trade association providing safety, education and training, legislative & regulatory advocacy, human resources, labor relations options, construction information, and affinity programs. AGC members are dedicated to skill, integrity and responsibility. For more information, visit www.agcmichigan.org.

###