

NEWS RELEASE

Detroit Contractor To Lead Statewide Construction Association

Lansing, Michigan, March 1, 2021 – The Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Michigan today elected Andy Wasiniak, assistant vice president of Detroit-based Walbridge as chairman of the association’s board of directors. AGC is Michigan’s leading full-service association for commercial building construction firms.

“I am honored and humbled to help lead this great association over the next year,” said Andy Wasiniak. “Walbridge is one of only seven national construction companies still in existence that helped form AGC as a national association in 1918. I am proud to be a part of our legacy in advancing the industry through AGC.”

Wasiniak is a 30-year veteran in construction, having spent the last 21 years at Walbridge. He holds a bachelor’s degree from Bowling Green State University and a master’s degree from Cleveland State University. Mr. Wasiniak is also past president of the American Institute of Constructors. He lives with his wife and three daughters in Northville.

Serving alongside Mr. Wasiniak as 2021 officers of the AGC of Michigan are vice chairman Sam Clark of Clark Construction Company in Lansing, and treasurer Dennis Carignan of Granger Construction Company in Lansing.

TAGS

Leadership, construction, Michigan, Walbridge, commercial contracting

MEDIA CONTACT

Cathy Mayhew, Director, Communications
cmyhew@agcmichigan.org, 517.908.8052

ABOUT AGC MICHIGAN

The AGC of Michigan is a full service construction trade association providing safety, education and training, legislative & regulatory advocacy, human resources, labor relations options, construction information, and affinity programs. AGC members are dedicated to skill, integrity and responsibility. For more information, visit www.agcmichigan.org.